

One Farm at a Time™

partnering to preserve small farms ↑↑

PLEASE

DONATE

WHAT YOU CAN

online at onefarmatime.org

|

help us raise $13,000
for 2013!

|

all donations are tax deductible

████████████████████

Ensure the protection of local farms, opportunities for young farmers and an abundance of local food

■

|

■

■

Greetings Co-op Owners, Good Humus CSA Members and friends of small farms! At year's end, we

■

Help us raise $13,000 for 2013! We have received matching challenges totaling $13,000 from the Col

■

Our region is blessed with staggering agricultural bounty — much of it from farms we can visit and

■ With your help, we are creating a future where the people who enjoy local food can support the farms

■
The goal of our pilot project is to purchase an innovative conservation easement that will preserve Good

■
With the completion of the Good Humus easement project, One Farm at a Time can begin serving as

■
So far we have raised about $280,000, thanks in great part to people like yourself who care about v

■
Jeff and Annie Main began this campaign with the support of the Massachusetts-based nonprofit Equ

■
Invest in the future of www.localfarmstoday.org to help ensure a healthy future for local food. To learn more, visit www.localfarmstoday.org or call 1-800-877-7243.

■
Thank you for your continued support and best wishes for the New Year!

■

ONE FARM AT A TIME

