

Let's get ready to

JUMBLE!

Unscramble these jumbled words, one letter to each square, to form answers to the questions.

- 1 This sweetener comes from trees
PLAME YPRUS MAPLE SYRUP
- 2 This sweetener comes from bees
YEHON HONEEY
- 3 A water wise way to bathe
OSHTR SWEHR SHORT SHOWER
- 4 This cooling herb is often found in spicy salsa
LIANTORC CILANTRO
- 5 A style of gardening that can help save water
XEANCSRGIIP XERISCAPING
- 6 Jerusalem artichokes are also know as
NHUSCSKOE SUNCHOKES
- 7 Sweet root vegetables that are missing from the White House garden?
TSEEB BEETS
- 8 This variety of beet looks like a candy cane inside
OGAHIIC CHIOGGIA
- 9 Which vegetable was first cultivated by the Incas in Peru thousands of years ago?
TOTOAP POTATO

Use the circled letters to answer this bonus question:

One ancient civilization valued coriander, the seeds of the herb we call cilantro, so much that they buried them with their dead. Using the circled letters above, can you discover the ancient places where coriander seeds have been found?

EGYPTIAN TOMBS

Look for hints throughout the Co-op Reporter.

If you get stumped, you will find the answers at www.sacfoodcoop.com.

click for larger view